

All that matters.
Slicing. Smart & Easy.

A matter of principle: Smart & Easy.

TEXTOR redefines slicing technology and proves that it's really adding by subtracting. Our slicers combine high quality with functionality reduced to the max. Excellent performance, simplified operation and a unique open design. That's TEXTOR!

Easy to operate.
Easy to clean.
Easy to maintain.
Extremely powerful.

Our Quality. Made in Germany.

As part of the Weber group, we are highly integrated with engineering and manufacturing with access to the latest technology.

Combined with our experienced team with a true passion for slicing, we are developing smart solutions for customers who know what matters.

Our philosophy: Smart & Easy

To set new standards in regards to simplicity and easy-to-use is what drives us. Our systems are free of functionality and features which they do not absolutely need.

Smart ideas, an open design and machines which are easy to clean and to operate is what makes us unique.

Our portfolio:

TEXTOR has a range of slicers and also offers complete solutions from slicing up to automatic loading into packaging systems.

- Circular and involute blade slicers
- Scanner
- Weighers
- Interleaver
- Conveyors and Autoloaders

Our service.

Qualified and close to the customer.

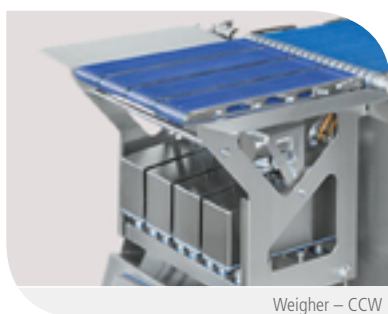

We do not only supply new machinery, but also support our customers with service and application expertise.

Preventive maintenance pays off - that's for sure.

We support you in providing optimal preventive maintenance for your slicer installations. This can include not only the inspection and maintenance work itself, but also the creation of maintenance plans and schedules.

Get more out of your installed base. Application support.

We check your slicer installations in order to maximize their potential, make recommendations for adjustments in their settings and perform those together with you.
